

WESTON DRAMA WORKSHOP

MUSICAL THEATRE DANCE MASTER CLASS

FOR DANCERS OF ALL ABILITIES!

Brush off your dance shoes and get ready for a fun, engaging, and informative Musical Theatre Dance Class. This class will include an overview of how to conduct yourself in a dance audition, musical theatre dance technique and styles, and a chance for you try your hand at mastering two different styles of choreography.

INSTRUCTOR- Karen L. Hernandez:

Professional dance instructor and choreographer, Karen Leslie Hernandez, has worked at venues and schools throughout the USA, England and Italy. With over thirty shows under her belt including West Side Story, A Chorus Line, Guys and Dolls, Honk, Once on This Island, The Wizard of Oz, Fiddler on the Roof and Cabaret, Karen has choreographed with various theatre companies including North Shore Music Theatre in Massachusetts and Starmaker Theatre Company in Reading, England. Karen has also taught dance with Boston Ballet's CityDance program, as well as in California at American Musical Theatre, and at Centro Arte Danza in Pordenone, Italy. While in California, Karen was the Artistic Director of MelodiCo. Dance and her work premiered in Al Gilbert's L.A.'s Hottest Choreographers. Karen is also a Theologian who focuses on Christian-Muslim Understanding and religious extremism. She is currently pursuing an M.A. of Sacred Theology in religion and conflict transformation from Boston University School of Theology, and she also holds an M.A. Theological Research in Christian-Muslim Understanding from Andover Newton Theological School, and a B.A. in Peace and Justice Studies with a concentration in Islam from Wellesley College.
